Patent Speculations—

Everything in connection with the nomination for the Presidency of the various parties, because of more and more important questions which the conventions present. Every one seems to have and knows the views of his neighbor on the subject, and with a disposition to spread our views with everything of interest to all with whom we come in contact.

With all these speculations as we seem to walk about, we are bound to be interested in the election.

With Mr. Lincoln's prospect for the Rep. nomination at Chicago, the local Republicans of the St. Louis

Republicans say:

"Our fellow citizens, Hon. ALEXANDER LINCOLN, has been making a political speech in New York, and, in the course, has uttered some words which we do not like."

What do we like? We like what any other Republican, and, personally, we like him better than most of them.

He is a good man, and we have seen him speak well.

It is our opinion, it does not profit any of us to speak in opposition to Senator

Lincoln. If Mr. Lincoln's prospects are not good, we have no objection.

We like Mr. Lincoln, politically, just as well as anybody Republican, and, personally, we like him better than most of them.

He is a good man, and we have seen him speak well.
